

14) The Catholic Church bases its teachings on Sacred Scripture and the Living Tradition. Explain the beginnings of the Living Tradition:

15) _____ and _____ existed before the Bible.

16) The Catholic Church is the only body that teaches:

17) The Catholic Church teaches:

The Bible _____ the Church.

The Church _____ the Bible.

The Church is the _____ and _____ of the Bible.

The Protestant Church teaches:

The Bible _____ the Church.

The Bible _____ of the Church.

The Bible and the _____ only.

18) The New Testament was collected as a whole by the year _____ and the Council of _____ settled the canon of the New Testament.

19) All Christians had the complete Bible until the _____ century when the _____ changed it. It is through the _____ that the Protestants got their Bible.

20) In the year 303 AD _____ issued an edict to _____

_____.

21) The Catholic Church is like _____

_____.

22) The Protestant Bible has _____ books fewer than the Catholic Bible and they include:

Also missing are _____ chapters of _____, and _____ verses and _____ chapters of the book of _____. Luther didn't like the books of

_____, _____, _____, and _____ but they remained in the Protestant Bible. The inspired writings of the Bible had been cherished and venerated for _____ years until Luther decided that certain books did not suit his _____ and _____. Luther also edited some of the books himself, in particular he added _____ to _____

in order to eliminate the teaching of good works.